BALI THAI

1 Bt Batok Central Link, #03-03 The West Mall, Singapore 658713

Tel: 898 9188

SETTING: Indo-Thai artefacts give this restaurant a highly ethnic feel. Bright, cheerful and comfortable furnishings incite a sense of great expectations from the kitchen (which is amply justified). There is another outlet at #B1-06 Jurong Point Shopping Centre (tel: 792 6953).

FOOD: The unusual marriage of Indonesian and Thai dishes does not take anything away from the quality of the food. Each dish comes authentic and full flavoured, bound to please the harshest critic. Begin with a spicy and sour tom yum soup or the Indonesian soto ayam. Tahu telur, the popular deep-fried beancurd and egg melange, is one of the best in town. Ayam panggang, beef rendang or Thai green curries might feature as main events with sayur lodeh or fried baby kai lan in oyster sauce providing the vegetarian back-up. Not to be missed is the ikan bakar, a whole sea bass barbecued in a sweet soya sauce. Specialities are available on a seasonable basis. At the time of review, fried garoupa with mango salad, and crispy breaded squid with oyster sauce provided choices outside the regular menu. Accompany your entrees with yellow rice, Indonesian fried rice or Thai fried kway teow. A selection of Indonesian and Thai desserts round out a highly satisfying dining experience.

WINE: This is a halal restaurant so no liquor is served.

SERVICE: Friendly and attentive staff bring the food to your table in no time.

PRICE: A meal for four costs about $100.
